

Reduce exposure to compliance risks in day-to-day employee communications.

Extend competition, labour and employment, HR, and other compliance training into daily work by automatically coaching employees as they draft high-risk messages across email and messaging tools.

Intervene in Real Time

Prevent non-compliant communications before they are sent with integrated alerts in Microsoft Outlook and Teams, Google Workspace, and other enterprise messaging platforms.

Deliver Customised Coaching

Enable employees to make better communication decisions in the moment using the content they are actively writing to deliver targeted, policy-aligned alternative phrasing.

Differentiators

- Prevent non-compliant communications before they are sent by intervening at the point employees draft messages, rather than relying on detection after the fact.
- Increase accuracy and reduce false positives using AI models that understand context and intent, instead of relying on keyword-based rules and lexicons.
- Drive real behaviour change, not just policy awareness, by coaching employees as they draft messaging through seamless integrations with Microsoft Outlook, Teams, G Suite, Slack, Zendesk, and more.
- Reduce downstream investigation and remediation costs by addressing issues early before they escalate into formal compliance events or evidence.
